Purpose of Procurement Change Order

- This contract allows for the purchase of Chevrolet proprietary parts and specialized maintenance and repair services necessary to ensure the proper upkeep, performance, and longevity of Chevrolet vehicles within the City's fleet.
- Historically, these parts and services have been obtained on an as-needed basis through EP-Market. The department seeks to establish a formal contract to ensure reliable access and continuity of fleet operations.
- The contract will expire on August 11, 2026, and additional capacity is needed while the replacement contract is being awarded.
