Subject: Response to Suspension Notice
Mr. Valdes

I am writing in response to the suspension letter I received on September 12, 2025. The letter states that I was suspended for verbal abuse. I respectfully and firmly deny this allegation, as no such incident occurred.

I value my membership and participation in the Eastside Senior Center and have always conducted myself with respect toward staff and fellow members. This suspension is both surprising and distressing, and I kindly request a clear explanation of the specific details surrounding this claim.

I ask that this matter be thoroughly reviewed, and I respectfully request reinstatement of my membership. I am confident that a fair review will show that the allegation against me is unfounded.

Thank you for your attention to this matter. I look forward to your timely response and the opportunity to resolve this issue.

Sincerely,

Jesus A. Maldonado

Describe What Happened (Continue on Page 2, if more space needed)
Mr. Ramon Salazar came up to me in the office and told me that Mr. Maldonado was verbally abusing him, and that he wanted to fight him. I went out of the office and Mr. Maldonado was outside by the entrance. I asked Mr. Maldonado what was going on, Mr. Maldonado saw Mr. Salazar near the entrance and started mocking him and calling him names "cry baby". I told Mr. Maldonado that he needed to stop and remind him about the code of conduct. He continued calling Mr. Salazar names and walked out.

Engaging in inappropriate physical or verbal contact.
Describe What Happened (Continue on Page 2, if more space needed)
Rec. Specialist Jaqueline Wantroba informed me that while she was walking through the facility, Mr. Alfonso Maldonado began walking closely behind her and repeatedly shouting the word "favoritism" in a loud tone in her ear. Ms. Wantroba ignored him however, she stated that he continued to escalate by moving closer to her ear and raising his voice further. Ms. Wantroba stated that she turned around and asked him if there was a problem. Mr. Maldonado began walking away while continued to yell and stating that there was favoritism. This incident occurred during an ongoing facility incident and added unnecessary disruption to an already tense environment
Action Taken (Continue on Page 2, if more space needed)
After Ms. Wantroba reported the situation to me, I approached Mr. Maldonado and issued a verbal warning, advising him that such behavior is not appropriate. I informed him that if he has any concerns, he should bring them to the office and speak with us directly. He responded with, "Okay, okay," and went to the restroom. It should be noted that Mr. Maldonado has previous formal written incident reports.

Statement

Monday Sept. 8, 2025

After observing Mr. Valadez speaking with Mr. Maldonado, both he and I proceeded to the office, accompanied by Recreation Specialist Jaqueline Wantroba, to discuss the serious events that had taken place.

While we were in the office, a participant approached the service window and requested to share her concerns after witnessing Mr. Valadez and me speaking with Mr. Maldonado. The participant expressed that Mr. Maldonado is extremely jealous and possessive of his wife. She reported having witnessed Mr. Maldonado accuse other male participants of looking at his wife and behaving aggressively, including the use of profanity. She further stated that Mr. Maldonado has also scolded his wife for allegedly looking at other men, even though she is not.

Statement from Participant Comment Regarding Mr. Alfonso Maldonado

Written by Jaqueline Wantroba

9/8/2025 at 10:15 AM

Mr. Valadez, Omar Santos, and I were talking in the front office when a participant approached the window. She stated that she saw Mr. Alfonso Maldonado talking to Mr. Valadez and Omar in the hallway and wanted to express her thoughts on him.

She mentioned how she sits near Mr. Maldonado and his wife in the dining room. She stated that from her personal experience she has seen Mr. Maldonado be aggressive and highly possessive with his wife. According to her, Alfonso will scold his wife for looking at other men, even though she is not. She claimed that he will accuse other men in the vicinity of looking at his wife and will react violently towards them (ex: he will raise his voice & use profanity while accusing them).
