While El Roberto (Kenny) was in the concourse area. Joe and Dana Barra joined me playing some Mexican music while waiting for Bingo to start. El went ahead and started to play some music. Shortly after the music started to play Lenea Valdez was obviously bothered by the music choice and made a rude comment saying "I don't want to listen to ~~fixing~~ Mexican music. She mumbled if under her breath but I could clearly hear what she said. She said if we could find some American music to play instead. I told her I was doing what they instructed me to do. ~~was~~ giving little manual. They just the first time she has been rude towards me. I feel she has a personal problem with me. She makes it seem like we need to listen to what she wants up to do and clearly get upset and we don't listen to her. [Signature]
