RESOLUTION

WHEREAS, in 1982, the annual celebration of Banned Books Week was launched by the Office of Intellectual Freedoms, the American Library Association, and the publishing community in order to fight against censorship and celebrate the freedom to read; and

WHEREAS, Banned Books Week is celebrated in order to highlight current and historical attempts to censor books in libraries and schools, while also celebrating the freedom to choose as well as the freedom to express one's opinion even if that viewpoint may be deemed unconventional; and

WHEREAS, Texas state officials in leadership positions last year began questioning books and reading materials in public schools, particularly those relating to race and sexuality, including Pulitzer Prize-winning books and authors, and

WHEREAS, the books that are being questioned tell the stories of people of color and are the stories of the marginally oppressed, which should be included in the education of all people; and

WHEREAS, we should recognize that the power of words and books is used to open the eyes and the world of younger generations, by starting conversations and outlining the perspectives of different groups and individuals, and Banned Books Week was established to acknowledge this fact and celebrate the stories that officials in our state are trying to silence; and

WHEREAS, the City of El Paso has committed to building a truly equitable community by guaranteeing every citizen has the freedom to read and have access to diversity and information, and YWCA El Paso del Norte Region's mission is to eliminate racism, empower women, and promote peace, justice, freedom, and dignity for all; and

WHEREAS, YWCA El Paso del Norte Region and the City of El Paso have partnered to create Banned Books sections in all City of El Paso Public Libraries, ensuring all community members have access to stories that represent them, and that citizens are encouraged to embrace diversity by reading stories about communities other than their own; and

NOW, THEREFORE BE IT RESOLVED, THAT THE CITY COUNCIL OF THE CITY OF EL PASO:

Recognizes September 18 - 24 as the American Library Association's Banned Books Week.
