- The 2014 Master Plan was produced through consultation with the broader community, arts leaders and artists, and City officials, particularly those in departments that collaborate with the Public Art Program. The process included a citywide internet survey; ongoing consultation with an advisory committee; public open houses; tours of City facilities; briefings with department directors, the City Manager's office, and City Representatives; and a City Council study session.
- The 2024 Master Plan will be developed in conjunction with Elevate EP, meetings are scheduled to begin in the fall of 2024. The plan will be produced through consultation with the broader community, arts leaders and artists, and City officials, particularly those in departments that collaborate with the Public Art Program.
