

1. What is the Enhanced Library Card?

The Enhanced Library Card is an El Paso Public Library card that includes a person's name, picture, and other personal information. It may be used as a photo ID where accepted.

2. Who is eligible for an ELC Card?

El Paso County residents are eligible for the Enhanced Library Card. Click HERE to go to the application form. The approved list of Identity and Residency documents can be found Click here for English
Click Here for Spanish.

3. How can I use the Enhanced Library Card?

The Enhanced Library Card is a library card and can be used to access all the resources that are available to Library cardholders—this includes books, DVDs, and other physical materials in our collection, as well as our various electronic resources, such as ebooks and access to databases through TexShare.

4. What is required to apply for an Enhanced Library Card?

- To apply for the ELC, library staff must verify your identity and residency. You may need to bring more than one document to prove your identity. Proof of identity will be determined by a 3-point rating system. Check the list of acceptable documents carefully.
- Original or certified copies are required. You must be present to verify any documents and have your photo taken. Images you have printed or provided digitally will not be accepted.

5. What information will be printed on the ELC?

Your name, address, birthdate, height, eye color and gender (with the options of male, female and X) will be printed on the card in addition to a picture taken at the point of issuance.

6. Can my minor child apply for an ELC?

No, the card is only for individuals 18 years of age or older.

7. Can I use my ELC at all locations?

The ELC is an El Paso Public Library card that can be used at all EPPL locations and online to access electronic materials content and databases.

8. Where can I get my ELC?

- Jose Cisneros Cielo Vista Library Branch 1300 Hawkins Blvd., El Paso, TX 79925
- Irving Schwartz Library Branch 1865 Dean Martin Dr., El Paso, TX 79936
- Sergio Troncoso Library Branch 9321 Alameda Ave., El Paso, TX 79907
- Westside Library Branch 125 Belvidere Ave., El Paso, TX 79912

9. How long is the ELC valid for?

The ELC is valid for five (5) years after it is issued. Cards can be renewed when they expire.

10. Is there a cost for the ELC?

The County of El Paso will pay for cards outside of city limits. ELC is available to the city of El Paso adult residents (18+ years old) at no charge.

11. What do I do if I need to update my personal information?

It is vital to keep your personal information on the ELC current. Please bring the card to one of the ELC issuing library branches. For a fee of $5.00, library staff will update your information and reprint the card for you. Your original expiration date will stay the same.

12. What do I do if I lose my ELC?

Please report the loss of your ELC immediately. Please bring your documentation to one of the ELC issuing library branches. For a fee of $5.00, library staff will update your information and reprint the card for you. Your original expiration date will stay the same.

13. What must I bring to apply for a library card?

A picture ID and proof of physical address (verifying County of El Paso residency) are required to receive your library card.

14. What if I don't have a photo ID—can I still apply for a library card?

If you don't have a photo ID, we would be happy to accept a letter from an agency or government entity that states that you do not have a photo ID. We ask that this letter be the original, be on a letterhead of the agency/government entity, provide your name, state that you do not have a photo ID, and be signed by an agency/government entity staff member. Accepted agencies/government entities: shelters, caseworkers, any City of El Paso department or State of Texas agency. In addition, you must provide proof of address.
