BACKGROUND / DISCUSSION:

Many constituents have contacted my office regarding ongoing issues with the U.S. Postal Service. Currently, all District 5 residents are assigned to the Sandy Creek Post Office on George Dieter. However, the increasing reliance on cluster mailboxes has created major inconveniences—damaged or unassigned boxes have forced many residents to wait in line at the post office for up to one or even two hours. Additionally, I ' ve been informed that residents from Horizon, Socorro, and other areas of Far East El Paso County are also assigned to this same location.

Between 2010 and 2020, District 5 experienced a 47% increase in population, further straining the already overburdened Sandy Creek Post Office. Earlier this month, I met with Congresswoman Escobar ' s office to discuss this issue. Together, we recognized the need for
